WHO WE ARE

PEACE ON THE STREETS RADIO INC.

WOKB 1680 AM Radio's Segment Peace On The Streets is the up and coming talk of the South! Based out of Orlando, Ocoee, Florida, DJ Owner/Host and Producer "Prince of the South" followed by Owner/Producer/and Co-Host Radio Personality "Your Girl Mimi" are bringing the heat to the radio era. Peace On The Streets is aimed to an audience between the ages of 18-58, bringing the sounds of music that bring everyone together. R&B Quiet Storm is the segment's sound, which includes two hours of R&B mainstream music such as songs by Marvin Gaye, Al Green, early 90's R&B, 2000's and so much more! As far as being based in Orlando goes, not only is it very diverse in the area but the segment is catering to that and their people to continuing bringing in all cultures of the city into their home.

Christian based, Peace On The Streets makes it known that everyone is always welcome to their home no matter what background you may encounter, no matter what culture you may be of, no matter what religion, you are welcomed we are also expanding our music playlist with other genre of music plus Continuing to spread the word of God freely and non structured.

OUR MISSION

Peace On The Streets is goal orientated to continuing being the change you wish to see in the world by gathering local talent and businesses to come in and market themselves with established backgrounds. Also bringing in indie artists around the United States Inspiring those ,giving hope and giving the people a chance to speak upon their accomplishments and their goals in a comfortable welcoming, and encouraging environment. Prince of the South and Mimi compete to create their brand of encouragement and free will to the people to never be afraid to speak upon what you love, give thanks to who you believe in, and always pursue your dreams.
